Dear Parents and Guardians

In compliance with School Inspection Regulatory Requirements, we are obliged to inform you in writing of your rights to be provided with, or have made available, certain information relevant to your child's education.

Below we list the relevant policies which are all published on the School website under Parents' Hub, Rules and Policies. In curved brackets you will find the location of the hard copy in a School publication and in square brackets the title of the appropriate senior member of staff who can supply the document. The most recent information will always appear in the website version of the policies or documents. We continue to check and update these policies and documents annually as we are legally bound to do.

Information that is provided on the website; by email; in person at the School; or sent to you as a free hard copy:

- School address, phone number and name of Headmaster (School website; School Calendar; Blue Book)
- Name and School address of the Chair of Governors under the List of Governors (School website; School Calendar; Blue Book)
