

Stowe School Careers Newsletter

December 2018

New Degree at Warwick University: Technology, Health and Well-Being Sciences

The University of Warwick have introduced a new degree for 2019 in which students will be taught how to support individuals to help themselves to better health and well-being.

Read More

After a busy Michaelmas term, students are looking forward to a busy Christmas. Beyond mince pies and relaxing, many Fifth and Lower Sixth Form students are planning their summer work experience and researching potential higher education options.

The careers newsletter for December highlights some opportunities for taster lessons, work experience, careers, degrees and apprenticeships.

No wonder Santa only works once a year.

Aston University Study Days

Check out the study days for sixth form students at Aston University in Birmingham. They range from Business or Computer Science to Psychology or Optometry.

Read More

Preparing for a Medical School Interview

If you are preparing for an interview at medical school, the Medic Portal have a useful page on current, hot topics in the NHS.

Read More

University of Buckingham: BA(Hons) Security, Intelligence and Cyber.

Students wishing to pursue a career in security, intelligence, diplomacy and foreign affairs would find this two-year degree programme at the University of Buckingham an attractive option.

Read More

Careers in the Pharmaceutical Industry

Want to find out what it's like to work in the industry or just advising someone? This website has information for all.

Read More

大成 DENTONS

Law Apprenticeships at Dentons

Dentons Law Firm are recruiting for Law Apprentices to join their six year study programme leading to admission to the Roll of Solicitors.

Read More

Two-Year Degree Plan to Cut Cost of Tuition Fees

Students in England are being promised the option of 'accelerated' two-year degree courses, saving 20% on tuition fees compared with a three-year course.

Read More