

Careers and Higher Education Newsletter

June 2019

Making Your First and Insurance Offers: Top Tips

Do you have students who have still to decide on their firm and insurance offers on UCAS track? Which? University offers some important factors to consider.

Click to read more

A Guide to Studying Sports Science

What exactly is it, why study it and what are the opportunities and potential earnings. This is a really useful guide for any students considering studying Sports Science or a related course at university.

Click to read more

Six Habits that Encourage Good Mental Health at University

With all the current emphasis on mental health, and an increasing number of young people suffering from anxiety and depression, this article offers some simple and useful advice.

Click to read more

Thinking of Studying Abroad?

Educations.com looks at some of the top European schools for studying abroad, and there is also the chance to win a €5000 scholarship.

Click to read more

Careers

Apprenticeships at Pfizer

Students with a passion for science, who want to help make a difference to patients around the world should have a look at the apprenticeship schemes at Pfizer, one of the world's leading biopharmaceutical companies.

Click to read more

25 Dying Professions You Should Avoid

John Pugliano, author of 'The Robots are Coming: A Human's Survival Guide to Profiting in the Age of Automation' sees plenty of jobs that will come under threat.

Click to read more

Careers Lessons push up GCSE Grades

Teenagers taught about the world of work are more motivated to get higher GCSE results, say researchers.

Click to read more

What Does it Take to be a Journalist?

If you have ever dreamed of becoming a journalist, but don't know where to start, some seasoned BBC hacks give their advice.

Click to read more